

Course Rotations for the B.A. in History

Students should meet with the B.A. History Program Coordinator to discuss electives and degree progress.

Every Fall Semester

HIST 3300 Historian's Craft (Required Course)

Every Spring Semester

HIST 4395 History Senior Research Seminar (Required Course)

Every Even Year in the Fall Semester

HIST 3310 American Beginnings

HIST 3316 Military History of the United States

HIST 4327 History of Russia and Eastern Europe to 1917

HIST 4345 World War II and the Holocaust

Additional electives

Every Odd Year in the Spring Semester

HIST 3311 Creating a Nation

HIST 4301 United States History and the World

HIST 4328 History of the Soviet Union and Post-Soviet Russia and Eastern Europe

Additional electives

Every Odd Year in the Fall Semester

HIST 3312 Age of Jackson

HIST 3316 Military History of the United States

HIST 3332 Renaissance and Reformation

HIST 4365 The World Since 1919

HIST 3339 Europe in the Middle Ages

Additional electives

Every Even Year in the Spring Semester

HIST 3313 Civil War and Reconstruction

HIST 3341 Europe from 1814-1919

HIST 4340 Europe in the Age of Empire and Absolutism

Additional electives

Every Summer

Usually, at least 3 electives that are not listed in the above course rotations.

Please note that for fall and spring semesters, non-required courses may be subject to change based on student interests, the need to expand the offering of courses, and other factors.

However, each fall and spring, there will be unique electives that are not repeated within at least a 2-year cycle.