

2016-2017 Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) Verification Form

Student Name: _____ Student ID: W_____

In accordance with federal regulations, a student's room and board component of their cost of attendance may only include an allowance for board if:

- the student is living in housing located on a military installation,
- or housing for which they, their spouse, or a parent (if a dependent student) receives a military housing allowance (Basic Allowance for Housing or "BAH").

This does not apply to stipends or monthly payments received as a result of using a VA education benefit; such as Post 9/11 GI Bill or Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Services.

Are you currently living in housing located on a military installation or in housing for which you, a spouse, or a parent (if a dependent student) receives a Basic Allowance for Housing?
